Dedicated to Elmer C. Schwertman,
Professor of History

If the human face is "the masterpiece of God" it is here then in a thousand fateful registrations. Often the face speaks what words can never say. Some tell of eternity and others only the latest tattlings. Child faces of blossom smiles . . . are followed by homely faces of majesty carved and worn by love, prayer and hope, along with others light and carefree as thistle-down in a late summer wind. Faces having land and sea on them, . . . faces crooked and lost wondering where to go this afternoon or tomorrow morning. Faces in crowds, laughing and wind-blown leaf faces, profiles in an instant of agony, mouths in a dumb-show mockery lacking speech . . . Some of them are worth a long look now and deep contemplation later. Faces betokening a serene blue sky or faces dark with storm winds and lashing night rains. And faces beyond forgetting, written over with faiths in men and dreams of man surpassing himself. An alphabet here and a multiplication table of living breathing human faces.

Carl Sandburg

"It is the common wonder of all men, how among so many millions of faces there should be none alike."

—Browne

Books are not men and yet they are alive,
They are man's memory and his aspiration
The link between his present and his past,
The tools he builds with.
—Benet

Look in the face of the person to whom you are speaking if you wish to know his real sentiments for he can command his words more easily than his countenance.

—Chesterfield

I see not a step before me as I tread on another year;
And what looks dark in the distance,
May brighten as I draw near."

—Brainard

What power?

The high and the mighty

Looking for something??

A positive pole

Their day will come

He means now!!!

Who says classwork can't be fun.

Some for you and . . .

Don't be ashamed.

Who says studying can't be fun.

Sometimes it helps.

Ugh!!

We saw, we heard, we did—

And so we learned.

We learned the facts, the formulae,

but more—to watch, to understand,

to act,

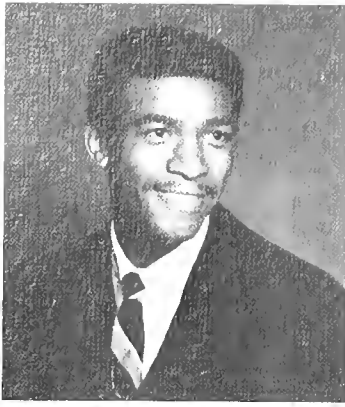

to care.

Now you must look at us,

For ours are the faces of the future

Stokely Carmichael speaks on black unity during Afro-American Festival Week

President Robinson greets African visitors during Afro-American Week festivities.

During a time when most Afro-Americans are fervently seeking to identify and rediscover their rich heritage, the college conducted an impressive Afro-American Festival Week. This Festival, conducted in three sessions, provided a wealth of information on the history and culture of the black man.

The first session heard Dr. Boniface T. Obiehere, of UCLA, trace slavery through four continents. Several other guest speakers spoke on such interesting and informative topics as "Slavery through Reconstruction in America", "Slave Codes of the Western World", and the "Philosophy, Economics and Justification of Slavery".

Dr. Earl Thorpe, of North Carolina College, keynoted the second session centering his talk around the contemporary black man. He related that the central theme of the contemporary black man has been the quest for freedom, equality and affirmation of his manhood.

The evening was rounded out with an address by Stokley Carmichael, who stressed love and unity of the black man for each other.

Donnell Morris, Student Council President, introduces His Excellency, E. M. Debrah, Ambassador to the United States from Ghana, as the keynote speaker during the final day of the Afro-American Festival

His Excellency, E. M. Debrah, Ambassador to the United States from Ghana, concluded the week's festivities, giving an appraisal of the significance of history relative to Africa and the black man. Mr. Debrah emphatically stressed that "The opaque view of the past stems from a deliberate distortion of history and a flagrant suppression of part of it".

Throughout the festive week, stimulating and impressive artifact were on display in the Benson Library along with a special display by the Black Student Union. The collections were numerous and included charcoals, woodcuts, silk screens, and color etching.

Donnell D. Morris, President of the Student Council and Larry Omega Brown, Campaign Manager for Donnell is shown shaking hands with Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey while in Raleigh in March of 1968 attending an Agriculture Convention at Raleigh Memorial Auditorium.

Dear Student Body:

As Vice President of the United States of America it gives me great pleasure and pride and a distinct honor to endorse the candidacy of Donnell D. Morris for the office of President of the Student Government Association for the academic year 1968-69.

Having served in the Student Government of St. Augustine's College for the past two and a half years and President and Vice-President of Dillard Senior Comprehensive High School and State President of the Florida State Student Council Association certainly gives him a varied background and extensive training for this most honored position.

The new realization, on the part of Negroes, that the possession of political power delegates to them the means of counteracting so many of their shortcomings is symbolized in the strong efforts of Dr. Reginald Hawkins in his bid for the N.C. gubernatorial seat during the bygone elections. Dr. Hawkins, the first Negro candidate to run for governor in N.C. made it clear that he did not care to be the governor of black people alone. He appealed in particular to the liberal, the young, the black and the poor. He attacked relentlessly industry, the National Teachers Association, the Public Welfare System, and employment agencies, charging them respectively with underemployment, prejudice, lackadaisical attitudes and inefficiency.

Hawkins urged the registration of eligible voters as only some 300,000 of some 700,000 potential voters were registered.

The Political Science Club recognized his rising prominence in the political arena and had him as our guest speaker on campus May 14. He challenged the students to equip themselves for the jobs of tomorrow and predicted that the genius of tomorrow "will come out of the ghetto".

They Came, They Spoke . . . We Listened

The note of "political power" was again sounded on campus with the advent of Senator Clarence Mitchell of Maryland as the guest speaker of the January 30th All College Assembly. "Become involved and not acquiesced to the power structure, which is politics", preached Mitchell. He condemned Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown's activities as geared by egotism and selfish motives. He expressed confidence, not disenchantment in the American youth. "I believe", he said, "that the young generation will be the salvation of our nation and the world". He reminds us that the youth did not produce dirty movies, dope, and other things for which they are blamed. Mitchell was well received by the student body. His appearance represents the efforts of the Lyceum Committee to attract prominent national servants and others to the campus.

Student Leadership Conference

At no other time in recent history has there been a greater need for Administration-Faculty-Student collaboration in the procurance and maintenance of an energetic and productive educational system. St. Augustine's tries to keep abreast of the times, and as such, on October 12, 13, the third annual Administration-Faculty-Student Conference was held at Umstead Park, Raleigh.

It is a fact-finding mission. A program geared towards the realization of the interests of all involved. The isolation, the study, and the remedial action recommended for relationship problems, all make for a better, well lubricated, dynamic educational machine.

The two guest speakers of the conference, Mrs. Hazel Logan, guidance counselor at Fred J. Carnage Junior High School, Raleigh and Mr. Julius Nimmons of the St. Augustine's History Department, discussed Leadership—the qualities of a leader and his role in society. Means for promoting academic excellence were probed. Mr. Richard Mizelle, guidance counselor, St. Augustine's, led a discussion on, "The Expectations of Students, Faculty and Administration." Recommendations were drafted and the same committee was to meet at intervals during the school year to further study and possibly implement the suggestions. Student representatives to the conference were drawn from different social, academic, and greek organizations. City students and students unaffiliated with any organization were also represented.

The snapshots show how there was time for recreation and sports. Since in these informal activities so much cordiality and understanding is displayed, there is no reason why such a pattern could not be adopted in formal and academic matters. Then, for the administration, faculty and students, the sea of interaction would be as tranquil and placid as that pictured here and all will "paddle" along with some unity of purpose.

After spirited discussions, the mind relaxes and concentrates on pleasant and lively recreation.

The spirit of the Christmas Season was enhanced with a consolidated Christmas Concert by the Choir, Vocal Ensemble, and Concert Band.

Manhattans Entertain During Homecoming. The Student Council added an exciting note to homecoming week activities by sponsoring the talented and versatile Manhattans. Also performing with the Manhattans were the equally exciting Magnificents.

The Lyceum Series Opens

Not merely a fitting compliment to this year's Lyceum Series, but indeed also one of its highlight personalities, was the beloved Amanda Ambrose. If you had to label her you would probably term her a jazz singer, but one with a most unique and arresting style. A delicious blend of ballads, blues, jazz, rock and gospel music—captivating the senses and intoxicating the soul. A singer "cum" piano, comedienne and actress, Miss Ambrose grips and delights an audience with any mood she chooses to simulate. Endlessly spontaneous, consistently infectious and engaging, the thing about this artist is that she is "FUN".

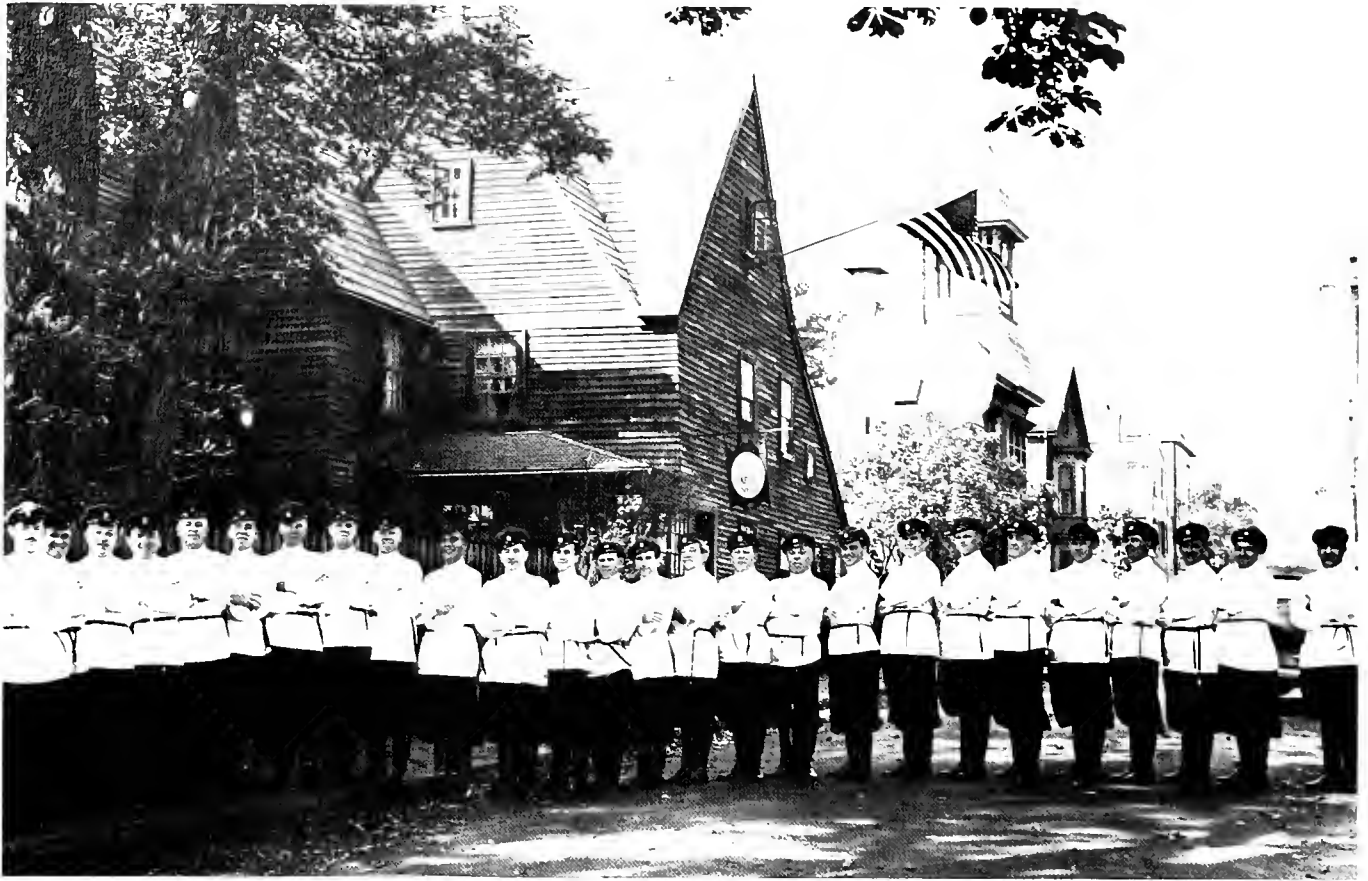

Versatility, vigor, charm, and magnanimity—soul sister Amanda receives orchid from coed Carolyn Fisher.

Don Cossack Dancers

The pomp of the military, the lustiness of the ensemble, the frivolity and dexterity of the circus

A star attraction of the lyceum program was the Gen. Plantoff Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers who appeared on campus Dec. 4. This group is one of the most impressive group internationally known—having touched on 65 countries in their itinerary. This all male group in their bright uniforms, take on a military appearance when they stomp onto stage in such perfect formation. Then when they burst forth in song so lustily, your hair raises on end. So frighteningly mighty, mellow are their voices. Just as talented are they as—dancers—“The Dagger Dancers” they are called, as they implement daggers in many of their breath-taking acts.

They draw large crowds wherever they go and they had a very appreciative audience at our Emery Building when they graced us with their presence.

One of the main features of the Lyceum series, the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, was featured in our October concert. Under the expert baton of Benjamin Swalin, it was a delighted and stimulating performance in the Emery Health and Fine Arts Center.

College Chapel, small only in size, awaits all who would enter.

Fr. Clyde Beatty, the college chaplain

As a church related institution, St. Augustine's College can be categorized with hundred's of other such similar institutions, but it is here that the similarities become less distinguishable.

During a time when many social, political, economic, and religious philosophies and doctrines are being questioned, the necessity to redefine basic christian doctrines relative to the black movement becomes increasingly important. As each young Afro-American asserts his and her right to complete freedom in the pursuit of their aspirations, the college has the monumental responsibility of providing not only academic preparation but also religious guidance.

The college administration is responding to this challenge with all of the vitality and enthusiasm necessary to ensure success.

But for those not in this category there are many organizations and they need members to function . . .
take your choice!

Editors Fought Battles Against

Falcon 69

of Falcon 69 is quite unique in that none of the staff had ever put together a college yearbook before. Friendly, interested people who wandered into the office found themselves photographers, copy writers, section editors, and even an associate editor. Everyone who started a job, finished it, and each staff member managed to last throughout the year.

I would especially like to thank those on the staff whose work was only part of their value; first my right hand the lovely Lorraine, who, through her dedication, was consistently in trouble . . . She'll get over it. My second associate editor Burt, between his arguments and his see food diet . . . ate all the food he saw; was really my backbone. Cofield, who could turn the office into a party just by showing up; Douglas and Conrad, whose efforts to outdo each other resulted in one of the best collections of yearbook photography in years. James Sweatt gave us a very inclusive sports section.

To say that I learned a lot from the experience of editing this book would be a gross understatement. All I can say is thank you to those closest to me and to the book and hope they know what I mean.

Student Government

The purpose of the Student Council of St. Augustine's College is to provide a medium through which student opinion and thought are expressed; to receive criticism from the proper authorities of the institution and forward it to the student body with the council's recommendation and/or endorsement; to act as an intermediary between the student body and the administration and to have the power to make recommendations impartially, except in the case of moral turpitude.

The Student Council holds membership in several associated student government organizations, mainly, the North Carolina Student Governments Association and the National Confederation of Afro-American SGA.

The many activities which the Student Council has presented reflect its desire to provide a well-rounded program for the student body.

We, the students of St. Augustine's College are proud of our progressive student government.

Donnell D. Morris, Student Council President

Alpha Phi Omega

The newly installed chapter of Alpha Phi Omega National service fraternity has rendered services to the St. Augustine's Family and to members of the community. Members of the fraternity provided free transportation to the bus station for students and served as ushers during chapel services on Sunday.

During the election, fraternity members provided transportation for registered voters to and from the polls. In addition the brothers raised money for a needy family in the Raleigh area for Christmas.

The fraternity has many future plans such as, re-establishing Boy Scout Troop 94 on our campus, coaching a city baseball team, instituting a scholarship in the area of service to the school and raising money for the United Negro College Fund.

The History club was organized during the 1967-68 school year with Quintard Taylor as its first president. Its purpose is to stimulate history majors, as well as other students, to do constructive projects for the betterment of Saint Augustine's College and the Raleigh community.

During our first year, we had such projects as voter registration, outstanding speakers and historic trips. Consequently, we were awarded a certificate as the most outstanding club on campus.

This year the History Club has such projects as a mock election, a Christmas drive for the Central Children's Orphanage in Oxford, N.C., Negro History week, Adult Education project and a Historian's Ball.

The membership has increased to fifteen students and we are hoping that in the future, it will be the largest organization on campus.

The Phi Beta Lambda Organization was authorized in 1958 as the College Division of the future Business Leaders of America. A total of 390 chapters of Phi Beta Lambda are now operating in 40 states, Canada, and the Canal Zone.

The Lambda Pi chapter of Phi Beta Lambda was formally installed by Dr. Alton V. Finch, State Chairman of Future Business Leaders of America and Phi Beta Lambda, East Carolina College, Greenville, North Carolina, on April 21, 1966. The charter for the organization was also presented by Dr. Finch to James Perry, President.

The Purpose of the Phi Beta Lambda Business club is to gain knowledge and skills in the world of business and to stress academic excellence.

Members of Phi Beta Lambda are students majoring in business—Business Education and Business Administration.

Mr. J. H. Wheeler, President of Mechanics and Farmers Bank in Raleigh was guest speaker at the 1967 banquet.

The program of 1968 consisted of lectures, seminars, a banquet, and a show and dance featuring the "Superbs" of Livingston College in Salisbury, North Carolina. The speaker for the banquet was Dr. T. M. Law, Dean of Saint Paul's College, Lawrenceville, Virginia. Mrs. T. C. Lennon, Mr. John Winters, and Mr. C. L. McLendon were made honorary members.

Due to the increasing number of veterans returning to college campuses, the Veterans of St. Augustine's reorganized in the spring of the 67-68 school year for the purpose of stimulating the academic and social atmosphere among the faculty, staff, and students; to establish and maintain brotherhood among ourselves.

In the short span of its existence, the club has laid the groundwork for numerous programs. A scholarship fund for promising young students, and a special tutoring program for campus and community students are chief among the planned programs.

The Black Student Union was formed in May, 1968 for the purpose of fulfilling the desires for a better world, in which black people can truly live a life of freedom, justice, and equality. This organization is dedicated to social, economic and political ambitions of the black student. It has made many students aware of the major and minor problems that involve the black race and the black college.

The BSU has involved itself in numerous projects. It participated in two non-violent marches supporting the black community. One was for striking garbage workers, and the other for Marie Hill, a minor sentenced to be executed. At Christmas, it contributed toys for orphans in the Oxford Orphanage. The organization has made future plans to conduct classes on black history.

The Pen

"The Pen of Saint Augustine's College" has gone through many changes during the past years. At one time The Pen was the name given to the college's yearbook. When the yearbook took the name "The Falcon," the title "The Pen" went to the newspaper. During the 67-68 school year "The Pen" was changed to "The Pen of Saint Augustine's College."

In 1968, aside from its routine reporting activities, the Pen co-sponsored the Hines-Jeffery-Pitchford Concert. Its editors attended a united press conference in Raleigh, N.C. which in turn produced a newspaper with the assistance of most attending editors.

The St. Augustine's College Folk Ensemble performed the Rejoice Mass, a folk music setting of the Holy Eucharist.

Rejoice was composed to be an effective vehicle for worshipping God in the perplexing but exciting world of the twentieth century.

This music tries to offer an answer, that life in the now is a gift from God. Its zest and joyfulness are meant to bind the worshipping Church together in "shouting to God with loud songs of joy."

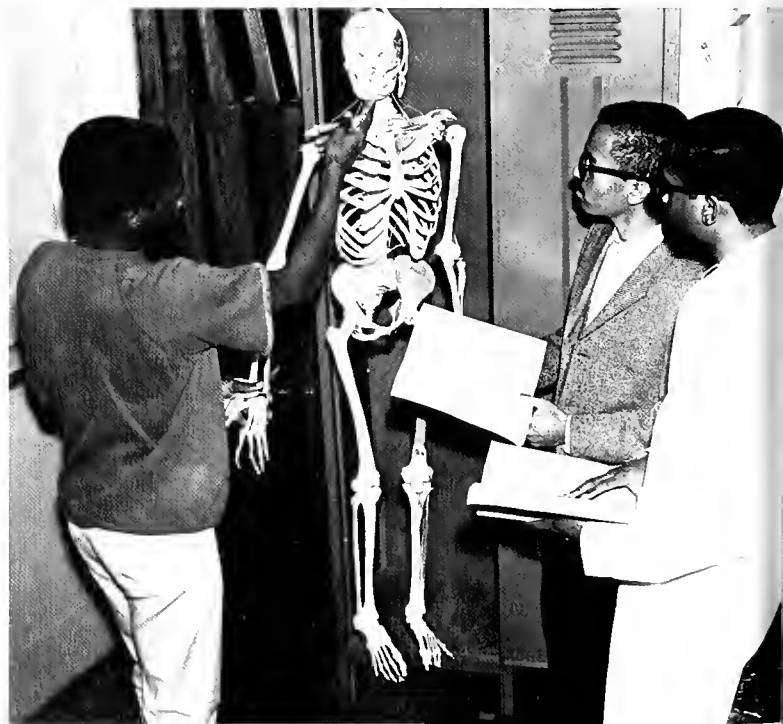

The initial campus performance met with immediate success, creating demand for repeat performances on campus and premiere engagements throughout the off-campus community.

The Student National Education Association is the preprofessional association for colleges and universities students preparing students to teach. It is an integral part of the National Education Association (NEA)—a voluntary, independent, and non-governmental professional association.

During National Education Week we sponsored a radio program which was conducted for that week. A special assembly was held in which the members presented a play to the college pertaining to education. There is also a buddy system in which upperclassmen majoring in education will be able to help the incoming freshmen if they are having any difficulty in their major.

Gamma Xi chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was founded on March 26, 1949 here at Saint Augustine's College. Through the years Gamma Xi has been an integral part of campus and community life. The major emphasis of the sorority has shifted from social functions to scholarship and service to mankind. Members of the chapter have carried on traditional projects such as presenting Christmas baskets and toys to the children of the Governor Moorehead School. During the first semester the chapter sponsored a Negro Heritage Scrapbook for display during the Afro-American Festival Week. Gamma Xi chapter has planned many other projects for the remainder of the year which include the sponsoring of a family at Easter, a Negro History Week project, and a project to aid the suppressed and starving people of Biafra.

Alpha Kappa Alpha women hold as their guiding light the motto: "Advancement through knowledge and Achievement".

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded in 1913 at Howard University. The fourteen founders envisioned an organization of college women pledged to serious endeavor and community service. Since then, Delta Sigma Theta has demonstrated a vital concern for social welfare, academic excellence, and cultural enrichment. Today, there are over 45 thousand members in 38 states, and the Republics of Haiti and Liberia. On January 12, 1963, at its Fiftieth Anniversary celebration in Washington, D.C., John F. Kennedy, the guest of honor congratulated the organization on its "service to the country."

The members of Delta Sigma Theta sponsored a project during probation week which involved gathering all types of dressing apparel to present as a gift to the patients at Dorethea Dix Hospital. They inducted seven young ladies into the sorority on December 6, 1968, one of which is Miss Saint Augustine's College. The sorors sponsored a banquet for the neophytes. Gamma Rho chapter contributed to the History Club's project for the orphan children in Oxford, North Carolina. They contributed to the UNCF project and also gave a $100 scholarship to a deserving Freshman young lady who possessed, along with other qualifications, a "B" average.

Sigma Gamma Rho, the youngest of the Greek letter collegiate sororities and now an inter-racial organization, was organized November 12, 1922 by seven young teachers in Indianapolis, Indiana. On December 30, 1929, the sorority was incorporated as a National Collegiate sorority and a charter was granted to Alpha chapter at Butler University.

The sorority strives to foster ideals and encourage education and upright living among women.

Zeta Phi Beta

Elaine Hemphill, Peggy Scott, Beverly Roberts

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. is an international organization with over 30,000 members in the United States and Africa.

Zeta Phi Beta was founded on the campus of Howard University in 1920 and has flourished and proven itself to be an outstanding unit in society which seeks to aid mankind through service and achievement.

Zeta actively participates in governmental, cultural and civic projects throughout the country. The Phi Beta chapter made and presented gifts to needy children in the hospital and the pledges participated in the campus beautification project this year.

Women of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority stress, "Scholarship, Sisterly Love, Finer womanhood and Service" in the attainment of desired goals.

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first black fraternity, was founded on the campus of Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, on December 4, 1906. The racial cleavage, characteristic of this period had stimulated seven bold black students to form a group for minority people to insure mutual helpfulness.

These seven students are known to members of the fraternity as Jewels. Their courageous act was the initial step toward forming other fraternities.

The ideas and principles upon which this fraternity was founded influenced many great men to join. Besides brotherhood, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity is based on knowledge, and achievement. All Alpha men are scholars, gentlemen, leaders, and above all, uprighteous.

FOUNDED—January 5, 1911

In order for any organization to achieve full respect from its peers, productivity should be one of the main purposes. To the members of Kappa Alpha Psi productivity is only one link in the chain of continuous achievement.

The brothers of Kappa are not only interested in a fraternal bond, but are desperately striving to achieve the concept of a universal bond in which all members of the human race can become a member.

As a result, Gamma Omicron chapter impresses unity among its members, perseverance towards its goal, and Phi Nu Pi as its motto.

Phi Beta Sigma

Isaiah Wilson, Jr., James C. Artis "Prexy", Peter Adams, Mary Mayo—Sweetheart, Moses Dorsey, Harold Rogers—Vice President, Edmond Pierce

This is not our beloved game of football. There is a change of action here. This is a game of life. Sigma has the "Ball for Better Living". Go! Go! Go! Sigma! Sigma scores by exhibiting a goal of scholarship, love, brotherhood and service. Sigma wins by a score of "Culture for service and service for humanity."

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc. was founded on the campus of Howard University in 1914 and Beta Xi chapter started here in 1940. The Fraternity is characterized by its neighborly and humanitarian efforts in the interest of society or in particular, the needy and underprivileged.

Sigma participates vigorously in the March of Dimes, the United Fund Drive, and is active in civil rights and equality moves. Lately, Beta Xi chapter has loaned its vigor to the promotion exemplification of scholarship and academic excellence. We are the pioneers of the idea of a tutorial program, here for the students needy of such extra and individual help. We now continue to lend private assistance to students in the field of Business, Math, History, Sociology and Spanish.

Jesse Clements, Director of Athletics and head basketball coach, came to Saint Augustine's College from Reid High School in Belmont, North Carolina, where for three years he produced successful teams in both football and basketball. He served as an assistant coach at Saint Augustine's for three years before he was appointed as head coach of the Saint Augustine's Falcons.

A native of Champaign, Illinois, Coach Clements received his B.S. degree from Saint Augustine's in 1952. He participated in both basketball and football, and was selected "ALL C.I.A.A." in 1950. He holds a masters degree from the University of Illinois.

In nine years, he has taken the Falcons to the C.I.A.A. Tournament with the 1960 team being the most successful. In October, 1966 Clements was elected to the Illinois Hall of Fame, and received a plaque and other honors. He is a credit to the entire school.

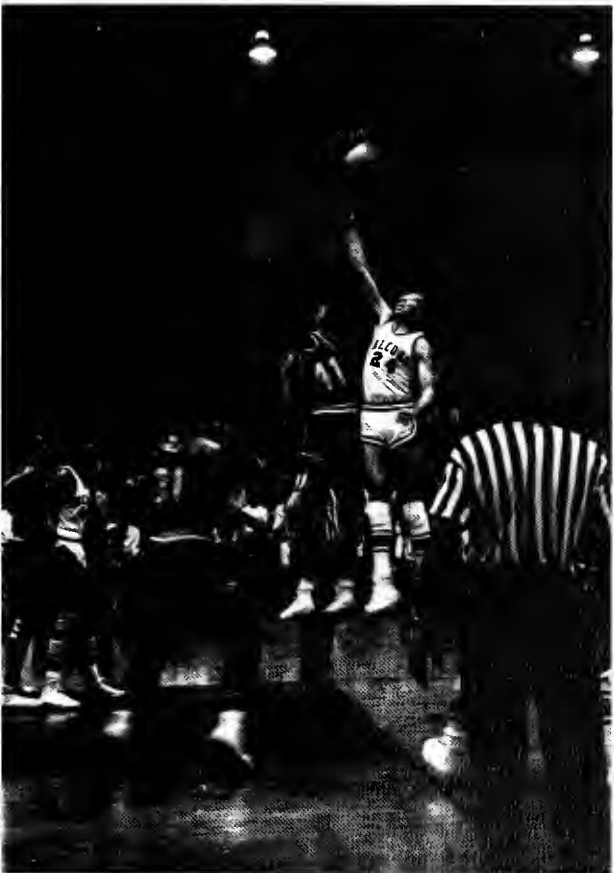

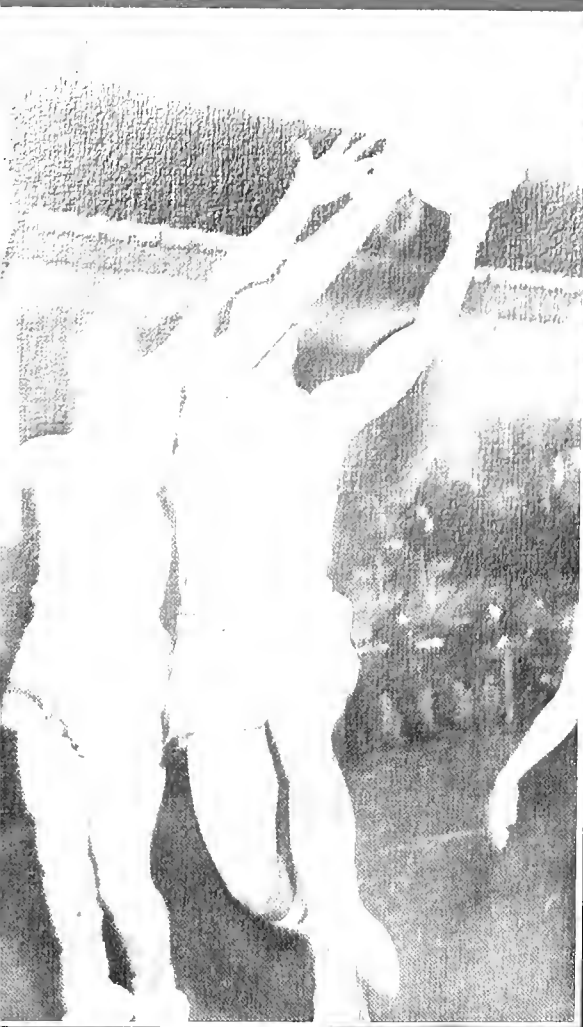

Nate Mask, a 6'2" junior from Philadelphia drives around no. 41 of the Winston-Salem State Rams to score two for the "Aug."

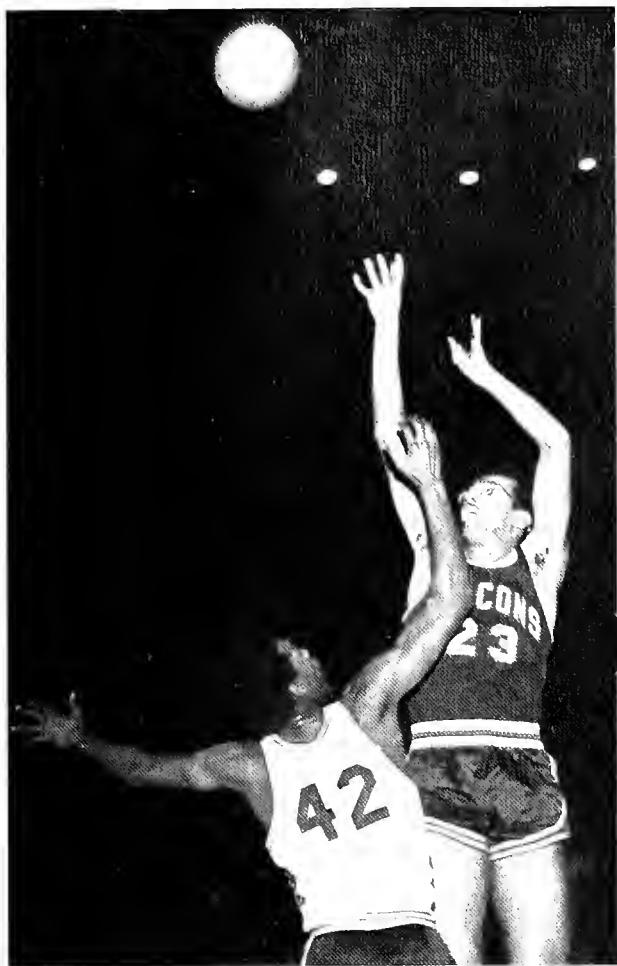

Raymond Gilmore, a 6'7" center from Plainfield, New Jersey contributed greatly in rebounding for the Falcons and was third in the CIAA last year, averaging 22.3 rebounds a game. He was the team's second leading scorer, hitting 57 per cent from the floor. (Above to the left)

The Falcons arch rivals in the CIAA are the Shaw Bears of Shaw University. The Falcons encounter rough play under the boards and deadly outside shooting by Shaw's backcourt. Raymond Gilmore shoots over Shaw Bears' No. 42. The Falcons lost to the Shaw Bears.

Louis Coe, a 6'4" freshman from Philadelphia, plays defensive ball against Shaw.

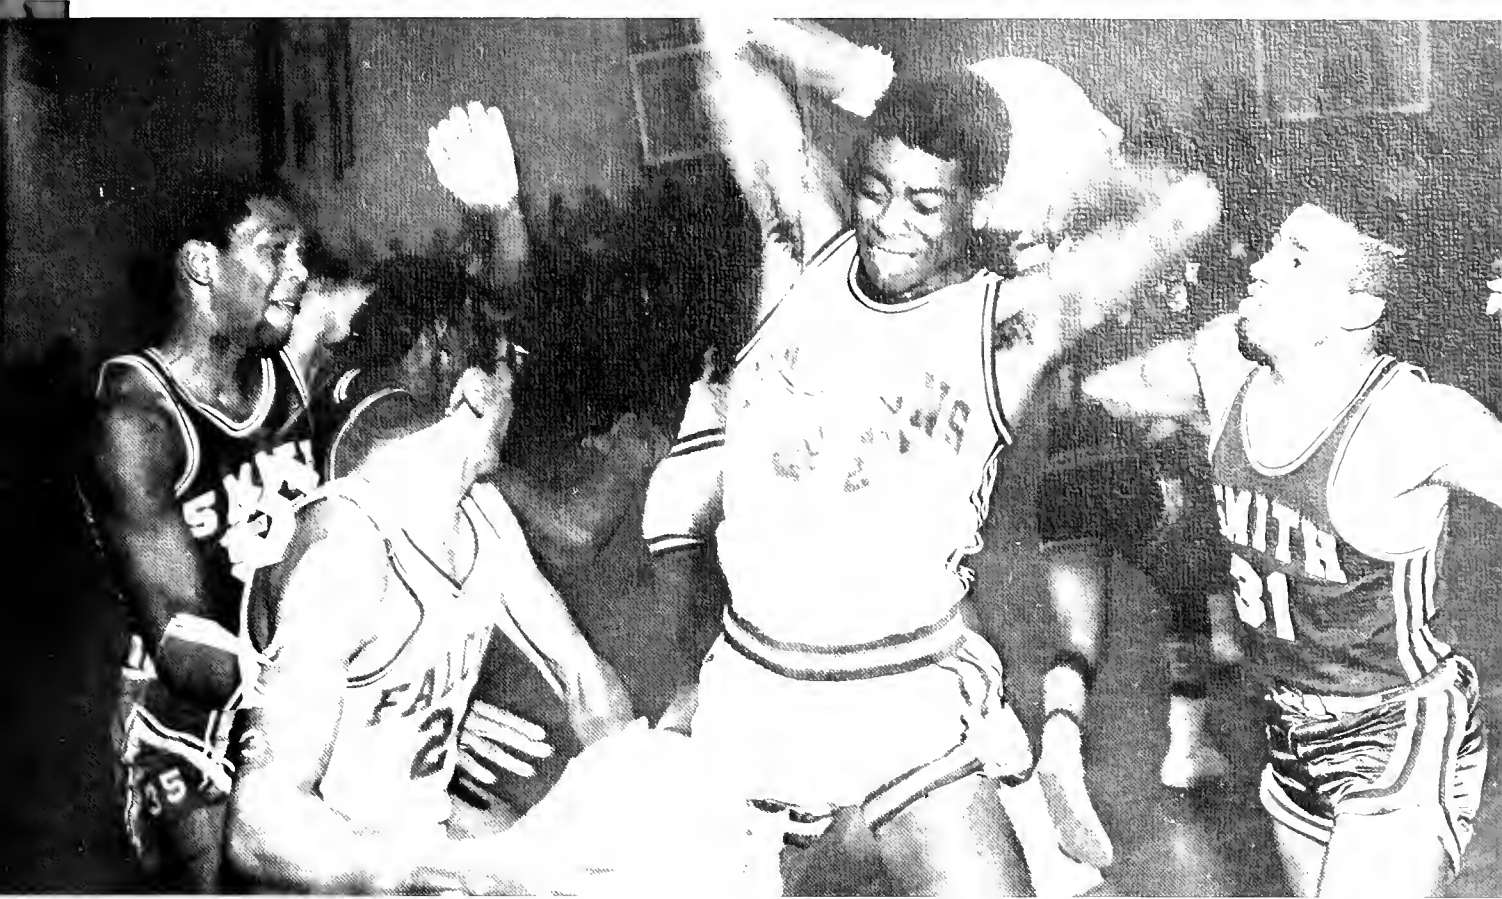

William Fleming, a 6'5" freshman from Robersonville is showing much potential in offense and defense.

Curtis Pritchett (21) looks on as Raymond Gilmore (23) fight for the ball. Pritchett is a 6'6" freshman from Richmond, Virginia. He is a very strong and aggressive offensive player, showing much potentiality in defense with every game. He is a strong rebounder and his taps under the offensive basket will add much strength to the team.

"We lose tonight, we win the fight"

Saint Augustine's College Track Team opened their 1969 season here at the new track and field behind the Emery Health and Fine Arts Building on Saturday, March 22, against Livingston College. The Saint Augustine's Falcons are led by C.I.A.A. winners Leonard Muse, Eben Myers, Andrew Houston, and Kenneth Hall. Joining them will be 1967 pole vaulting champion Edward Gill. The Falcons also have some new bright freshmen standouts such as Henry Debnam, a former track and field cinderman from Raleigh's Needham Broughton, a very potential trackman. At Broughton, he was a member of the mile relay and 440 that shattered the school, sectional and conference records. He placed third in the Eastman—4-A conference in 1968. Debnam has been working hard on the 440 yard run and the mile relay.

"BLACK POWER SALUTE"

In 1968 at the Summer Olympics held in Mexico City, two of United State's finest runners, Tommie Smith and John Carlos, were "ousted" from the olympic games because they used this pose to represent "Black America." From left to right Eben Myers, Kenneth Hall, Henry Debnam, Andrew Houston, and Frank Shaw represent "Black America" here at St. Augustine's. They felt that it was morally wrong to expel Smith and Carlos from the games because they showed their black pride. We as "Black Americans" have pride too, and the members of Saint Augustine's College Track Team feel that Tommie Smith and John Carlos are two of the finest runners in the country and will always be the 1st and 2nd place winners of the 200 meters at Mexico City, 1968

St. Augustine's cheering squad is sensational and very surprising. They are considered not only the best in the history of the school, but the best in the "CIAA" for the year 1968-69.
